PART B

Introduction & Background:

The board of equalization and review is the official assessment appeals board. The board, upon written request, will hear any and all appeals concerning the assessed value of real property in Chatham County.

Discussion & Analysis:

By statute the board of equalization and review meets between the first Monday in April and the first Monday in May each year. Current and past members of the board are people who are knowledgeable of property values throughout Chatham County. The Tax Administrator request appointment to the board as soon as possible, to allow adequate time for scheduling hearing dates.
