The Juvenile Crime Prevention Council (JCPC) has studied the risk factors and needs of Juvenile Court involved youth in this county and hereby publishes this Request for Proposals. The JCPC anticipates funds from the NC Dept. of Public Safety, Division of Adult Correction and Juvenile Justice in the amount stated above to fund the program types specified below. Such programs will serve delinquent and at-risk youth for the state fiscal year 2014-15 beginning on, or after, July 1, 2014. The use of these funds in this county requires a local match in the amount specified above.

The JCPC will consider proposals for the following needed programs:

Clinical Evaluation	Family Counseling	Interpersonal Skill Building
Psychological Assessment	Temporary Shelter Care	Parent/Family Skill Building
Sex Offender Evaluation	Restitution/Community Service Programs	Tutoring Academic Enhancement Programs
Individual and Group Counseling	Teen Court

Proposed program services should target the following risk factors for delinquency or repeat delinquency:

Chatham County has seen an increase in juveniles under the age 12 when they commit their first delinquent offense. Risk and Needs Assessment data indicates that involvement in an affray is higher than the state level. Also data indicates juvenile need substance abuse treatment and that most of the youth involved in juvenile court have moderate to serious school behavior problems in Chatham County. The number of youth who are abuse victims with no support or who have experienced domestic violence has increased and is higher than the state level. Family alcohol/drug abuse is higher than the state level.

Programs should address the following concerns as reported in the Needs Assessments for adjudicated youth:

Peer Domain: Interpersonal and experiential skill building and decision making; school behavior problems

Individual Domain: Increase in mental health needs, history or evidence of physical, sexual, or emotional abuse or neglect and sexual acting out issues.

Family Domain: Homes that experience increase marital and domestic discord, and families with alcohol or substance abuse issues.

School Domain: Behavior problems in school that tend to increase school suspensions and unexcused absences.

Applicants are being sought that are able to address items below:

1. Program services compatible with research that are shown to be effective with juvenile offenders.
2. Program services are outcome and evidence -based.
3. The program has an evaluation component.

Local public agencies, 501(c)(3) non-profit corporations and local housing authorities are invited to submit applications to provide services addressing the above elements.
